Caress the World

Caress the World (CTW)
Collection 2017
N°1 Self - portrait
Print on mirror and wood
50 cm diameter

(...) The caress is a mode of being of the subject where the subject in contact with another goes beyond the contact. Contact sensation as part of the world of light (1). But which is cherished not touched strictly speaking. This is not the softness or the warmth of the hand given in contact seeks caress. It is the search for the caress that constitutes the essence that caress does not know what she seeks .This is « not knowing » that messy fundamental is essential. It is like a game with something that eludes. A game absolutely no plan project . Not with what can become ours and we, but with something else, still another, still inaccessible, still to come.

And caress is awaiting that pure future without content.

Emmanuel Lévinas
« Totality and infinity »

(...) La caresse est un mode d'être du sujet, où le sujet dans le contact d'un autre va au-delà de ce contact. Le contact en tant que sensation fait partie du monde de la lumière (1). Mais ce qui est caressé n'est pas touché à proprement parler. Ce n'est pas le velouté ou la tiédeur de cette main donnée dans le contact que cherche la caresse. C'est cette recherche de la caresse qui en constitue l'essence, par le fait que la caresse ne sait pas ce qu'elle cherche. Ce « ne pas savoir », ce désordonné fondamental en est l'essentiel. Elle est comme un jeu avec quelque chose qui se dérobe, et un jeu absolument sans projet ni plan, non pas avec ce qui peut devenir nôtre et nous, mais avec quelque chose d'autre, toujours autre, toujours inaccessible, toujours à venir.

Et la caresse est l'attente de cet avenir pur sans contenu.

CONTACT-ZONE (CTW)
About Contact-Zone Series

These recent works make contact between myself (especially my hands that tend on surface) and the viewer (who is reflected on the same surface).
It seems as if we would touch each other through reflect.
The resin produces the reflect and the effect.
